

Maths

Penny and Jenny are really good friends. They collect fruit together. Can you find half of the following amounts?

1. 16 apples
2. 14 pears
3. 24 bananas
4. 18 peaches
5. 20 berries

Penny and Jenny both have half each. They each have 13. They have decided to put them back into a whole group and give them to Sydney Snake. How many will Sydney get?

Geography

What do you know about chocolate? Where do you think it comes from?

We buy chocolate from a shop but chocolate actually comes from cacao beans. Watch this video to find out how scrumptious chocolate is made and where it comes from.

Now try and answer these questions:

1. What countries do the beans come from?
2. How many seeds do the pods contain?
3. How long do the seeds take to dry?
4. Why are the beans roasted?
5. How are the beans transported?

Science

Can you sort the rainforest animals into these groups?

Mammals, reptiles and birds.

English

What do you know about rhinos? Javan Rhinos are thought to be the rarest large mammal on Earth. In the past they were hunted for their horns. Their homes have also been destroyed as large areas of tropical rainforests have been cut down. We only have approximately 60 Javan Rhinos left and if we don't protect them, they will become extinct.

Can you create a persuasive poster persuading people to protect the last Javan Rhinos?
