Friday 23rd February 2024

Our first week of this half term has flown by and Friday is here again. It has been lovely to see the children again following the half term break and hear all about what they have been up to! Last term ended with our Valentine's Discos—thank you for your generous support of this event. I am pleased to share that we now have contractors booked in to come and quote for works to add to our climbing frame on the KS1 playground—this will be entirely funded by money raised at these types of events over the last couple of years and I am thrilled that the children will get the benefit of this soon! This would not be possible without your support. I hope everyone has a lovely weekend. Mrs Lennon ☺

Parent Forum

The next Parent Forum meeting will be on Tuesday 12th March at 2.15pm. Thank you to those that have confirmed they will attend using the online form—if you can not make it, there is no need to respond.

A reminder to please label your children's jumpers/cardigans. We have so many unlabelled items in school and hence, can't return them to the correct pupil!

Rocksteady Music

Apologies if there has been any confusion regarding the Rocksteady Music sessions starting soon. The company have had to change our session to a Wednesday temporarily—which works fine for us and should now start next week. Please follow up with Rocksteady themselves if you have concerns.
